WASHINGTON, D. C.

The National Era is a weekly newspaper, devoted to Literature and Politics.
In Literature, it sims to unite the Reautiful with the True, and to make both immediately subservient to the practical purposes of everytiful with the True, and to make both immedi-day life. In Politics, it advocates the Rights of Man, tiful with the True, and to make both immediately subservient to the practical purposes of every-day life.

Able correspondents, at home and abroad, have been secured, and ample provision has been made for its Literary Miscellany.

It will publish condensed reports of the proceedings of Congress, explain movements in that body, the causes of which do not always lie upon the surface, and from its position be able to keep a constant watch upon the action of the Federal Government in relation to all questions at issue between Liberty and Slavery.

The extensive subscription of the Weekly Era, which, during the year about to close, has reached the number of twenty-eight thousand, must make it an eligible medium for advertisers.

The Daily Era will be issued on a sheet as large as that of the Daily National Intelligencer, on the 2d day of January, 1854, and daily thereafter, until the 1st of September, 1854, (or long In Politics, it advocates the Rights of Man, and the Equality of Rights, and opposes whatever violates or tends to violate them, whether this be involuntary Personal Servitude, Civil Despotism, Spiritual Absolutism, Class Legislation, the Selfishness of Capital, the Tyranny of Combination, the Oppression of a Majority, or the Exactions of Party.

It holds no fellowship with the Whig and Democratic organizations, believing that the main issues on which they have been arrayed against each other are obsolete or settled, and that they are now chiefly used by the Sectional Interest of Slavery, to impair the love of Lib-

Interest of Slavery, to impair the love of Lib-erty natural to the American mind, and to subjugate the American People to its rule. Dis-claiming all connection with them, it yet sym-pathizes with those of their adherents who are honcetly seeking through them to advance the substantial interests of the country, although it must believe that they have not chosen the better way. after, until the 1st of September, 1854, (or long er, should Congress continue in session,) Ar FIVE DOLLARS FOR THAT PERIOD; and should the result then WARRANT, the publication will be resumed on the 1st of September following,

It is a supporter of the Independent Democracy, which holds that the Truths of the Declaration of Independence are practical, that in their light the Constitution of the United States is to be interpreted, that to them the laws and institutions and usages of the country should be conformed—a Party, whose motto is, Union, not for the sake of Union, but for the sake of Freedom and Progress, and Law, not for the sake of Law, but for the Protection of Human Rights and Interests—the only sure foundation of order and concord. DESPOTISM IN AMERICA. BY RICHARD HILDRETH, ESQ.,

Author of "History of the United States," "The White Stave," fc., fc.

THIS is a new edition, very much enlarged, and brodght down to the present time, of a work published ten years since. It is a most timely publication, showing, as it does, in a manner not to be gainsayed, the regular, systematic, and constant encroachments of sing no authority in any quarter to prescribe its course and policy.

The Eighth Volume of the Era will commence on the first of January ensuing, and be enlarged by the addition of four columns. We have neglected no means that could promise to make it an agreeable companion for the Household, and an efficient co-adjutor to the enlight ed Politician. It has secured able correspondents at home and abroad, and no journal in the country can surpass the Era as it respects contributors to its Literary Department.

The Era publishes condensed reports of the proceedings of Congress, explains movements in that body, the causes of which do not always lie upon the surface, and from its position is enabled to keep a constant watch upon the action of the Federal Government in relation to all questions at issue between Liberty and Slavery. Reader, would you know what despotism may exist under the Stars and Stripes of a Republic, peruse with eare this masterly work.

This work is made up of the elaborate and stately essays of the Edinburgh, Quarterly, and other Reviews; and Blackwood's noble criticisms on poetry, his keen political commentaries, highly wrought tales, and vivid descriptions of rural and mountain scenery; and the contributions to literature, history, and common life, by the sagacious Spectator, the sparkling Examiner, the judicious Atheneum, the busy and industrious Literary Gazette, the sensible and comprehensive Britannia, the sober and respectable Christian Observer; these are intermixed with the military and naval reminiscences of the United Service, and with the best articles of the Dublin University, New Mounthly, Fraser's, Tait's, Ainsworth's, Hood's, and Sporting Magazenes, and of Chambers admirable Journal. We do not consider it beneath our dignity to borrow wit and wisdom from Panch, and, when we think it good enough, make use of the thunder of The Times. We shall increase our variety by importations from the continent of Europe, and from the new growth of the British colonies.

A LABASTER STARCH GLOSS.—The most pure, glossy, and finest, snow-white starch, is the world. The cost of this starch is about the same as common starch, the entire cost not exceeding five cents per quart, and is made just as quick. It preserves the clothes and gives them a glossy and enamilied appearance, that no other starch can do. This is an entirely new discovery, and the first time ever offered to the public. I ask a fee of only one dime for imparting the knowledge how to make this starch, and I expect to make more out of it at that low price than I could by solling it to a few of the rich for five dollars, which has been dane. Now, ladies and gentlemen, send on your dimes, and get this infermation, which some of you would not be without for fifty times its cost. credit to any writer.—Daily Advertiser, Boston.

The Lamplighter teaches important truths, which cannot be too frequently impressed upon the minds of all; and no one can study its instructive and fascinating pages, without being made better by its kindly influences. Its author has evidently a highly cultivated and refined, as well as an original and imaginative mind, and writes with the case, the classical correctness of diction, and that choice selection of terms, which indicate the good English scholar. In this respect, the Lamplighter is much superior to Uncle Tom's Cabin, whose inelegances meet us at every turn.—Boston Daily Atlas.
